Re: United States v. Jacobs, 20 CR 660 (ALC)

Dear Judge Carter:

We write the Court requesting a modification of Mr. Jacobs's pretrial release conditions; specifically, a modification of Mr. Jacobs's travel restrictions to permit him to travel to the Dominican Republic between the date of this Court's approval, if Ordered, and March 1, 2022. Mr. Jacobs has not purchased a ticket yet out of deference to this Court's authority, and so does not have precise dates of travel, but will in any case be back by March 1, 2022 if this Court approves.

As the Court may know from prior applications, Mr. Jacobs has a business installing and servicing credit card processing machines. He works with businesses in the Dominican Republic and has taken several trips there in the past (and has always, of course, returned). Mr. Jacobs would like to attend meetings with his counterparties in the Dominican Republic. He would also like to take a few days of vacation as well. He has applied for several prior travel modifications, each expanding his range of locations he may go, including a prior application for travel to the Dominican Republic, and the Court graciously granted each of those requests. Mr. Jacobs, in turn, has returned within the allotted time from each trip, and has scrupulously abided by all his bail conditions.

We have communicated with the Government (AUSAs Samuel Raymond and David Felton) and Pretrial Services. The Government and Pretrial Services both have no objection, which Mr. Jacobs appreciates very much.

Thank you for your consideration, and happy holidays.

Respectfully submitted,

The application is GRANTED.

So Ordered.
